Description:

Whether businesses on the FocusOn Business Movers file have moved locally or out of state, they are in need of a plethora of products and services. There are many reasons a business has moved, including but not limited to the cost of real estate, looking to tap into a stronger labor market, restructuring, or because business is growing. They are the perfect prospects for telecommunications, banking & financial services, electronics, office supplies, furniture, storage facilities, insurance, subscriptions, technology, equipment, training materials, trade journals and much more. Reaching businesses within the first month of their move is crucial to becoming a part of their everyday operations.

The FocusOn Business Movers database is the most comprehensive, freshest, accurate and highly deliverable New Mover database on the market today. Additionally, the FocusOn Business Movers file is able to identify relocated businesses on a weekly and monthly basis. As soon as a business has settled, we can target them, providing mailers with the advantage of being "First to Market" - giving mailers the benefit of staying ahead of the competition.
